

L. LOUIS TIES BROOKLYN.
CHAMPIONS TWICE BEATEN BY THE MISSIONARIES PLAYERS.

New York Break Even With the Pittsburghs—Philadelphia Take Two Games From the Chicagoans and Increase Their Lead—Boston's Double Triumph Over the Cincinnatians.

The reconstructed St. Louis team sprung a surprise over in Brooklyn yesterday by surprising both teams from the League Champions in easy fashion. The Brooklyns complained of a long railroad ride from Chicago in a slow train which landed them in town at a late hour, but they had the time to play a quick yesterday morning, but that was a post excuse, in view of the fact that the St. Louis team came straight through from their game and arrived here after having eaten breakfast on the cars. It was the first time in many years that a team managed by Edward Hanlon offered a double check-up on Decoration Day, and there was consequent wear in the camp of the Champions last night. St. Louis incidentally reached Brooklyn for second place, which makes the games to be played by these teams to-day and tomorrow of particular interest. The Brooklyns captured both games from the Chicagoans and increased their lead to 11 points.

The New Yorks broke even a double of last year, the Bostonians scored a double over the Cincinnatians. There is now a difference of but thirty points between sixth and eighth place.

WATERBURY, Conn.—MISSING GAME.

Eight thousand spectators went to Washington yesterday morning to welcome the Brooklyn Brooklyns home from their successful Western trip. They also expected to see their favorite team, the Bostonians, but they were doomed to disappointment for Hanlon's men were immensely outplayed and were very easily beaten.

The St. Louis team presented a farce of a first. Manager Beaman, who sat on the bench in crimson clothes selected Hughes to do the pitching, and that young man had the Brooklynites in trouble from the start.

But the arrival of Kelleher, which brought Kelley in the third inning from the Champion's wings, gave the visitors a cold deal of time and Swartwood allowed them to talk until they became tired, heedless of the shouts of the roars to get him back.

In the opening of the ninth, the Brooklynites had a chance to score, but they were unable to make it, and the game ended in a tie.

The only run the visitors were able to make was in the fourth. Ely singled to left field, was hit by a pitch, and then Ely made a star misplay of the game. Hickey sent a ground ball to the right, and the Brooklynites had to work hard to get him across the plate. Such is baseball.

The finding was agreed on both sides, in spite of the fact that the visitors had been beaten at third, handling some not out in fine style. Davis's play at short field was, however, the feature of the afternoon sport. He took care of everything that came his way with great skill.

Umpire Swartwood stood for a lot of kicking on both sides. Capt. Davis of the Brooklynites and at one time Capt. Phillips, was the best player between them. Then they wasted a cold deal of time and Swartwood allowed them to talk until they became tired, heedless of the shouts of the roars to get him back.

In the ninth, when Ely got to third base, he had to wait for a ball. Then Ely made the star misplay of the game. Hickey sent a ground ball to the right, and the Brooklynites had to work hard to get him across the plate.
